Marucho

Quintessentially French in its use of understated pattern and colour coupled with a unisex appeal, Parisian label Marucho was testing the waters at Pitti Bimbo after a successful round at Bubble New York.

- ?•Colours take centre stage, with the use of fire engine red, cream, pale lemon, black and teal creating striking combinations.
- ?•WGSN loves the use of neon plastic ribbons as a decorative touch, added to shoulder straps and a tie-waist on a red knitted dress.
- ?•The Harlequin print looks fresh for spring/summer 2009, appearing on knitted, gathered swimsuits, cropped leggings and knitted cardigans.
